

Supervision and Managing Performance

DG Legal is pleased to offer a new date for our very popular course designed specifically for practitioners taking a supervisory role. The course is suitable for those stepping into a supervisory role for the first time or for other supervisors or managers who want to brush up on their supervisory and management skills.

The course will satisfy the generic supervision requirements in the Legal Aid Agency (LAA) Standard Contract and covers the key supervision and management skills needed to ensure compliance with the LAA Contract.

The course will also provide practical advice for putting in place effective outcomes focused supervision arrangements to meet your professional requirements in the SRA Handbook and meet the requirements in quality standards including the Specialist Quality Mark and Lexcel.

Course Content:

- Meeting the supervisor standards
- Effective communication and working relationships
- Supervision & development of staff
- Performance management and improvement
- Training & development
- Setting targets
- Managing LAA contractual performance
- Financial management and budgets

Course Notes

Comprehensive and up to date course notes will be provided to all delegates which may be useful for ongoing reference or cascade training.

Speaker:

David Gilmore, Director, DG Legal.

David has been funded by a wide range of local and national organisations including the Law Society, the Legal Services Commission (now the LAA), the Ministry of Justice, Citizens Advice, Advice UK, LAPG, Comic Relief and the Baring Foundation. He has also provided advice and assistance to hundreds of law firms and other legal organisations. He delivers specialist consultancy and training on a wide range of topics including regulatory compliance, business management and strategy, tendering and quality assurance. In addition to leading DG Legal, David founded LegalVoice, an electronic magazine about Access to Justice & legal aid.

Why You Should Attend?

This course is aimed at all practitioners but particularly those operating a LAA contract. The content of the course is relevant to all managers, principals and lawyers wishing to improve their supervisory and management skills.

Continuing Professional Development

As of 1 November 2014, the SRA ceased to accredit all training providers, including ourselves, for CPD purposes. As a result, our courses can no longer be accredited. Solicitors are permitted to continue to use DG Legal to fulfil their CPD requirements and/or as a means to evidence that they have attended professional training as part of the SRA's new competence based scheme. Attending this course equates to 7 hours CPD.
